

CONTENT

LIST OF TABLES AND GRAPHS	12
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	13
Preface	14
Acknowledgements	16

INTRODUCTION

1. ABOUT THE WRITING AND PURPOSE OF THE BOOK	20
2. THE CURRENT ECONOMIC SITUATION AND THE SHORT TERM FORECAST	25
The depth of the current crisis	25
The current global crisis and forecasts	26
Downward corrections of the forecasts	28
The crisis in the Western Balkan region and Montenegro	32
Calculation results	36
The misery index	37
The economic situation index	39
3. WHY IS THE TRUTH ABOUT THE CRISIS KEPT SECRET?	44

Part I: FRAMEWORK

1. WHY DIFFERENT ANSWERS TO ECONOMIC QUESTIONS?	47
Presentation of the problem	47
A leap into history – the creation and development of economic science	52
The development of scientific cognition in economic science	52
The historical development of economic science	54

Pre-scientific phase	54
The problems in the emergence of economic science	55
The current status of economic science	56
The characteristics and problems of economic science	58
Definition of economic science	58
The differentiation of economic science from non-scientific areas	60
Scientific method in economic science	62
Scientific theories in economic science	63
Value judgments in economic science	66
The subject of economic science	70
Economists and their scientific community	70
The education of economists	72
Economic science in the system of sciences	73
The place of economic science in the system of sciences	73
The scientific nature of economic science	76
The relationship between economic science and other sciences	78
2. ECONOMIC DOCTRINES IN PRACTICE	80
The recent history of economic theoretic confrontations in the world.	80
Description	80
A Topsy-turvy world.	83
Economic doctrines in the Western Balkans	85
Economic doctrines in independent countries on the territory of former SFRY and Albania	88

Part II: GLOBAL CRISIS

1. A DESCRIPTION OF THE REAL ESTATE-FINANCIAL CRISIS IN THE WORLD	93
The creation and bursting of the mortgage and financial bubbles	93
The creation of a legal pyramid scheme.	94
How did the financial crisis happen in the USA?	102
The spreading of the financial crisis around the world	105
Europe	105
Japan	110
Asia	110

China	111
Latin America and Caribbean	111
Africa	112
Oceania	112
Activities for the mitigation of the financial crisis	113
The fall of the stock exchange indices in 2008 and their revival in the second quarter of 2009	113
The collapse of the hedge funds	114
2. AN EXPLANATION OF BASIC CAUSES OF THE CRISIS.	116
The creation of derivative financial instruments and securitization.	116
Normative acts of financial liberalization.	118
3. THE IMPACT OF THE FINANCIAL CRISIS ON THE REAL SECTOR OF THE ECONOMY.	120
Signs of crisis	120
Different effects of the recession in different economic sectors and regions	123
The USA	123
Western Europe	125
Eastern Europe.	126
What is the response of the emerging markets?	127
4. RESOLUTION OF THE CRISIS.	129
A systemic approach	130
The proper sequence of rescue measures	134
An urgent solution to the liquidity crisis.	134
The removal of bank solvency issues	136
Assistance to the real sector.	137
Monetary incentives for the real sector.	138
Why was the dollar growing stronger than the euro?	139
Fiscal incentives	140
What can be learned from the historical experience of the crisis?	143
The latest action for resolving the crisis in the world	144
Solutions for the real sector and citizens	144

Solutions for the financial sector	145
The role of central banks during the crisis	146
The Islamic banking industry	150
5. THE ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS – CAUSES, BLAME AND POLITICAL ECONOMY OF THE CRISIS	151
Market fundamentalism as a cause of the crisis	151
Who is guilty?	152
The culprits for the arrival of mortgage and financial crisis	152
The culprits for the mistakes in the process of crisis resolution.	153
The gate-keepers of the capital markets – their misusers	156
Political economy of the mortgage and financial crisis	161
Close connection between neoliberalism and economic and political elites in power	169

Part III. THE GLOBAL CRISIS, MONTENEGRO AND THE WESTERN BALKANS

1. THE VULNERABILITY OF MONTENEGRO AND THE WESTERN BALKANS TO THE CRISIS	173
Why should the region feel less the crisis?	174
An assessment of the situation and the vulnerability of the states of the region to the crisis	176
Countries.	176
The monetary sector – central banks	180
Example: Activity of the Central Bank of Montenegro	181
Financial sector	183
The real sector of economy.	187
The population and the social situation.	189
Conclusion	191
The external and internal causes of the crisis in the Western Balkans	191
External negative effects.	191
The WIIW call to support the Western Balkan countries.	193
Additional unfavorable local factors	194
The consequences of the crisis	195

Consequences for the financial sector	195
Consequences for the real sector.	196
The ownership of companies and financial units during the crisis.	197
Types of ownership and groups of owners.	197
While entire developed world nationalizes, the transition countries of the region would still privatize	199
“De-tycoonization” in current conditions?	200
The subsidiaries of foreign banks are owned by foreign states	203
A suitable ownership structure of a national economy.	203
2. HOW TO ACT IN PRACTICE?	206
Measures proposed and adopted by May 2009	206
Montenegro	206
Albania	208
Bosnia and Herzegovina	208
Croatia.	210
Macedonia	211
Serbia.	212
Kosovo.	214
Slovenia (as a benchmark)	215
Conclusion	216
Solutions at the macro level of the economic system and policy	217
General rules	217
Stimulating economic activities.	220
Social policy – increasing pensions for the poorest and increasing minimum wages	221
Health and pension reform	222
How to act in financial organizations?	223
Banks	223
Findings from the experience of others	223
System improvements in banking.	226
Insurance companies.	226
Suggestions for the insurance company activities in crisis	227
What can the government and supervisory authorities do for insurance companies ?	228

Systemic changes in insurance.	229
Investment funds and the stock exchange.	230
Real sector companies	231
Diagnosis of the situation in the economy.	231
The measures of the companies and other real sector entities	233
Government and bank support to economy	234
Individuals	238
What principles guide an individual when investing or distribute his wealth in different forms of property?	238
Inter-temporal preference as a discount factor	245
Practical decision where to invest, what is worth having today?	246
How should an individual decide today on borrowing, saving and dispersing assets?	249
Current spending and saving.	249
Two negative lessons learned.	250
The dispersion of assets	251
The role of government and monetary authorities in making key decisions in the crisis	253
3. THE IMPACT OF THE CRISIS ON PACIFICATION OF CONFLICT IN THE BALKANS	256
Foundations	256
Crisis impact	260

Part IV: CONCLUSION

1. A NEW GLOBAL FINANCIAL ARCHITECTURE	264
Expert proposals concerning the elements of a new financial system . .	264
Actions – meetings of the world politicians in confronting the financial crisis	273
Development in the EU	279
A psychological outlook on the origin of the financial crises	281

2.A SYNTHESIS OF THE PROPOSED SOLUTIONS FOR THE WORLD FINANCIAL CRISIS AND THEIR CRITICAL OVERVIEW	284
Neither liberal capitalism, nor orthodox socialism, but solidarism...	288
The meaning of the concept of solidarism.....	288
Background	289
Solidarism – the term	290
Pax Europea, not Pax Chinesis or Pax Asiatica in the 21st century...	290
The elements of solidarism	293
The importance of solidarism for the Western Balkan region	296
LITERATURE	298